

Annual Vacation Entitlements

---

Two weeks per year after each of the first four years of employment and three weeks per year after five consecutive years of employment.

Averaging Agreements

A written agreement may be implemented if the employer and employee or group of employees agree to average work hours over a specific period of time, as long as the employees' standard hours of work do not exceed 12 hours per day, 60 hours per week, and hours are determined by the prescribed formula.

Calculating Overtime

Overtime is calculated at 1.5 times the employee's regular wage rate for hours worked beyond eight hours per day and 40 hours per week. Overtime is calculated on a daily or weekly basis, whichever is greater.

Employer Termination Notice

---

- No notice required for less than 30 days of employment;
- One week of notice for 30 days of employment but less than one year;
- Two weeks of notice for one year of employment but less than three years;
- Four weeks of notice for three years of employment but less than five years;
- Six weeks of notice for five years of employment but less than 10 years; and
- Eight weeks of notice for 10 years of employment or more.

Hours Free From Work

---

24 consecutive hours free from work each week.

Maximum Hours Before Overtime

---

Eight hours per day and 40 hours per week.

Minimum Daily Hours of Work

An employee who reports for work at the employer's request or when scheduled to work for a period of three hours or more and is not required to work or is required to work for less than three hours is entitled to be paid the wage payable for the hours worked (if any) or the regular wage rate for three hours of work, whichever is more.

An employee who reports for a scheduled period of less than three hours is entitled to be paid the wage payable for the hours worked (if any) or the regular wage rate for the scheduled hours of work, whichever is more.
